

From: Constance La Lena
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/26/02 7:05pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The Microsoft anti-trust settlement should NOT include anything that would give Microsoft more unfair advantage than they already have.

The current proposal to have Microsoft provide computers and software to schools would do just that. Microsoft now does not have a big presence in schools -- Apple does. What the proposed settlement would do is extend Microsoft's monopoly into the one area where it does not presently monopolize the market.

Bad decision!

Constance La Lena
laconstance@ria.net